The Revelation of Ourselves

Expressions of appreciation, gratitude, pride, or victory are common on the faces of Cradock students. The face expresses our feelings toward someone or something. Even our most hidden emotions are evident in the lines, dimples, and cavities of the face. A thought, the joy of a memory, or the disappointment and hurt of a loss can be detected in the sparkle of an eye or unwept tears. The gritting of teeth, the set of the jaw, both express a team's confidence and wariness of their opponent. The laughter in an assembly, the lump that grows in your throat when you hear the Alma Mater, these feelings, too, are shown by our expressions. Our expressions serve as the picture of our inner soul.

Expressions in Stone

The halls of Cradock are each carved by the memories of the past and the hopes of the future. As one walks through these corridors, his expressions change with each passing door. The memory of a crabby teacher, the honors of receiving a much deserved award, and then the unforgettable memory of the apathy of some people.

This school will always hold reminiscences for some and with each one there will be an expression within one's soul.

Determination and Anticipation

The determination of reaching a goal; the anticipation of winning a game; these are vital aspects of Cradock people.

A Maze of Faces

The Cradock Admirals carry many varied expressions. There are ones of joy, sadness, fear and excitement. These play an important role in the lives of the Admirals.

Something to Smile About

Smiles for a friendly teacher, one you can really talk to; smiles for the silly new cheers and a cheerleader who really shows spirit; smiles for a place to rest in sixth period; smiles for a high school where you don't have to be afraid; smiles for Cradock and the Admirals.

Tolerance and Acceptance is Displayed by Mrs. Hawkins

From Life

Her thoughts are like a flock of butterflies.
She has a merry love of little things,
And a bright flutter of speech, whereto she brings
A threefold eloquence — voice, hands and eyes.
Yet under all a subtle silence lies
As a bird's heart is hidden by its wings;
And you shall search through many wanderings
The fairyland of her realities.

She hides herself behind a busy brain —
A woman, with a child's laugh in her blood;
A maid, wearing the shadow of motherhood —
Wise with the quiet memory of old pain,
As the soft glamor of remembered rain
Hallows the gladness of a sunlit wood.

Mr. Weatherford Leads The Class of '71 to a Successful Year

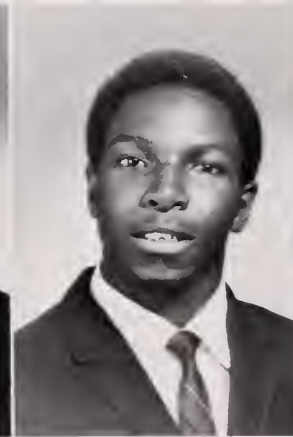

The school year 1970-71 rapidly approached maturity. With every fleeting month, there was certain to be a cherished memory impregnated within the hearts of every student at Cradock High. Perhaps no other group of individuals felt the impending effects of this year more than the senior class.

The senior class officers acted primarily as mediators between the class sponsor and all seniors. It was the foremost concern of each officer to make certain that the best interests of all class members were upheld.

Throughout the year, various money-raising projects were sponsored for the promotion of class activities. The Senior Banquet and the Senior Class Play were only a few planned activities which enabled seniors to exemplify their talents, enthusiasm, and devotion to all other students as they strove to uphold the pride and esteem which distinguished them as seniors.

Class of 1972 Has a Successful Year

"The Spirit of '72" is the ideal descriptive phrase for this year's Junior Class. Indeed, they are very pleased with and extremely proud of their role at Cradock this year. Each and every one of them are true Admirals, and their pride in being Admirals is on continuous display.

This year has been a most busy and productive one for them. They have taken part in almost all school activities. The class has sponsored numerous fund-raising activities to help make the Junior-Senior Prom of 1971 a most unforgettable occasion for the great Senior Class, and one to be remembered by all who attended.

Under the guidance of their most gracious and patient sponsors, Miss Linda Butler and Mr. Jerry Shackelford, they have profited in many ways this year. They feel ready and anxious to make the giant step to become Seniors, but 1971, their year as Juniors, will never be forgotten by them.

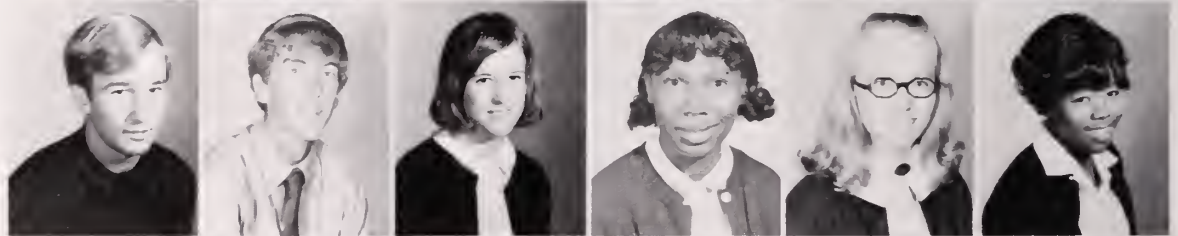

Class Officers: Mr. Shackelford, sponsor; Charisse Spencer, V. Pres.; Robin Tyler, Pres.; Terry Halstead, Treasurer; Ingrid Chapman, Sec.; and Miss Butler, sponsor.

Sophomore Leaders

Send Out Good Vibrations

Unlike the totally confused year of a freshman, the students in the Class of '73 have discarded some of their unsettled ways for more stable ones. This could be seen in the contentment on their faces as they worked vigorously in the year's Clothing Drive and the March of Dimes Contribution.

Sophomores accredit much of their success to their class sponsor, Mrs. B.A. Stanback. Under her leadership, they sponsored many activities to meet the expenses of an exciting and rewarding Prom. These activities included the selling of candy, car washes, bake sales and doughnut sales.

The Sophomores of '73 have definitely exhibited all the characteristics needed to become true leaders of tomorrow.

Freshmen Drive Forward

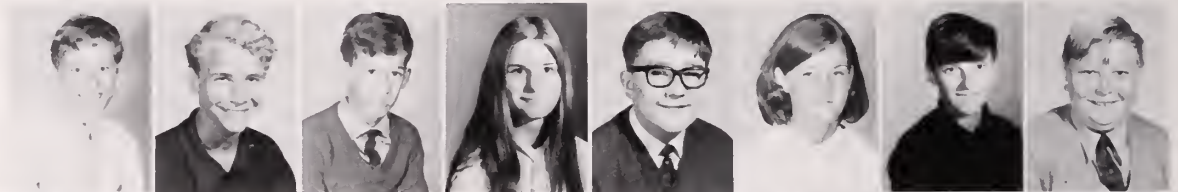

New to life at high school and Cradock, the Freshman Class is interspersed with expressions of fear, joy, and confusion. With the true spirit of the Class of '74 they join in as a part of the normal school life.

The Freshman supported the mighty Admirals in pep rallies, athletics, food drives, and the March of Dimes. Cradock is proud of its Freshman Class because they show all the potential of becoming a credit to Cradock High School.

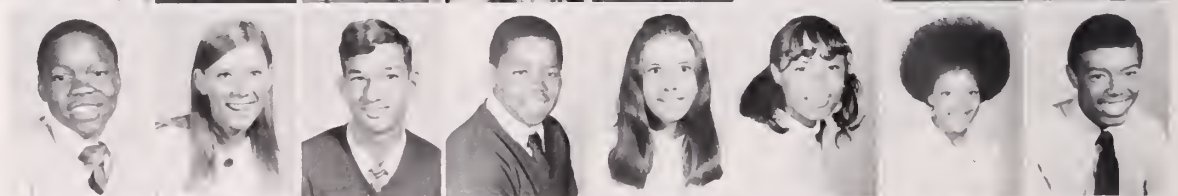

Officers are Cheryl Jordan, vice-president, Cynthia Haynes, president, and Julie Cantwell, treasurer.

We Pause for a Word from Our Sponsors

Under the direction of Dr. M.E. Alford, the Portsmouth School Board works to keep the city's educational system at it's best. Members of the School Board volunteer their time and efforts and dedicate themselves to work for the good of each of Portsmouth's students.

Dedication Plus Service Equals Administration

Under the leadership of Principal T.W. Gray, the Cradock Administration continues to solve the problems that arise in the everyday life of students and faculty. The responsibilities of this difficult job are shared by two Assistant Principals, Mr. R.E. Byrd and Mr. J.F. Bailey. Problems often come more easily and quickly than solutions, but with the capable leadership of these three men, the Cradock ship sails smoothly.

The Guidance Department functions to serve the students of Cradock. Guidance counselors coordinate and interpret all of the permanent record materials such as test scores and six-weeks grades that influence the present and future life of the student. Guidance counselors meet individually with the students to answer questions and solve individual problems. A student may request an appointment with a counselor at any time. The Guidance Department helps each student to find his area of interest and ability, and use it to make plans for his future.

English - the Art of Communication

Every Cradock student is acquainted with English, as a language and as a class. The course covers four years. The study of grammar teaches proper communication. The study of literature promotes an appreciation of the language used creatively by world authors throughout history. Creative writing, included in the course, offers students an opportunity to express themselves. Related courses are offered in speech, dramatics, and journalism. Students may practice what they learn by publishing the school newspaper, literary magazine, and yearbook. This department, headed by Mrs. Julia Hawkins, enriches the lives of all of Cradock's students.

Foreign Languages - A Different Kind of Communication

There were two important additions to the Foreign Language Department this year: Miss Betty Lucas and Miss Barbara Flynn, both Spanish teachers. Mr. William Ficenec, department head, taught French courses. The department aims to develop skills of listening, speaking, reading, and writing in foreign languages, as well as to increase the student's knowledge and awareness of the foreign culture.

Cradock Prepares Students for the Business World

Careers in business begin in Mrs. Delores Paine's Business Department. Courses are offered in Typing, Shorthand, Economics, General Business, Stenography, and Clerk-Typist. Students of business become familiar with all types of office work and office machinery. This prepares them for a future in everything from receptionist to executive. The world of business is open to graduates of Cradock's Business Department.

Social Studies

Stimulate

Democratic

Spirit

Students of social studies learn in a democratic atmosphere what democracy means and how to use reason in solving the problems of today. Knowledge of the history, government, and culture of our own country is related to those of other peoples in the world to emphasize the need for an understanding of our problems.

In times like these, courses such as United States and Virginia government, United States and Virginia history, world history, and world geography are vital to a complete education. The Social Studies Department does its part to provide this education for all of Cradock's students.

Fine Arts Round Out the Individual

The Fine Arts Department, under the direction of Mrs. Netta B. Staffon, stresses creativity and enriches life by helping the individual to find and develop his talent.

Mrs. Harriet Heath directs the Choral Department's five groups: Boy's Glee Club, Girl's Glee Club, Girl's Ensemble, Mixed Chorus, and the Madrigal Singers. Choral students participate in many community activities during the year in addition to school assemblies and concerts. The Cradock Choral Department hosted the Portsmouth All-City Chorus, and selected students performed in the All-Regional Chorus. In March, the combined Fine Arts Department presented a musical, "Mr. President".

The Art Department offers four years of art education. This year, several talented art students exhibited work at the Cradock Branch Library. Art students are always at work throughout the school, adding extra decorative touches at Homecoming and Christmas.

The Band and Orchestra always represent Cradock admirably. The Marching Band stimulates spirit wherever they play, while the orchestra offers cultural opportunities to talented students.

Art students have many questions to ask Mrs. Staffon.

The Cradock High School Science Department is proud of its interesting and varied program of science studies. Science courses included in this program offer a solid background of knowledge that is valuable to every student.

Science courses are lab-oriented. Laboratory experience is part of every field of study, and enriches the student's knowledge of the basic principles learned in the courses. Courses in physical science, biology, Earth science, chemistry, and physics are offered. Mrs. Jo Anne Vance, department head, makes sure that our science department serves to meet the needs of every student.

Physical Education

While academic subjects condition the mind, physical education conditions the body and promotes general good health. Sportsmanship is stressed in all activities and teamwork is important in exercises and sports.

In the classroom, students are taught health and first aid practices, and a course in driver education is taught as a special feature for future drivers. It teaches safe driving habits and sportsmanlike conduct behind the wheel.

Physical Education is an important part of school life. Mr. Willis Bell, department head, keeps Cradock's Physical Education Department at it's best.

Industrial Arts Develop Trade Skills

Industrial arts puts both the mind and the hands to work. Graduates of the industrial arts program are future trademen — architects, draftsmen, and electricians, to name a few.

Courses in industrial arts are geared to careers in the trades. These courses are: mechanical drawing, wood shop, metal shop, and electricity shop. Students learn basic rules of their subject and apply these rules in individual and group projects. Students who complete the program are eligible for various apprenticeships toward a career in the industrial arts.

Careers Begin in Vocational Education

The Vocational Education Department consists of four programs which prepare students for life after high school.

The first program, Licensed Practical Nursing is designed to prepare future nurses via pre-clinical and classroom instruction.

Distributive Education teaches the principles of living in today's economy.

The third program is Industrial Cooperative Training. It stresses "learning while earning."

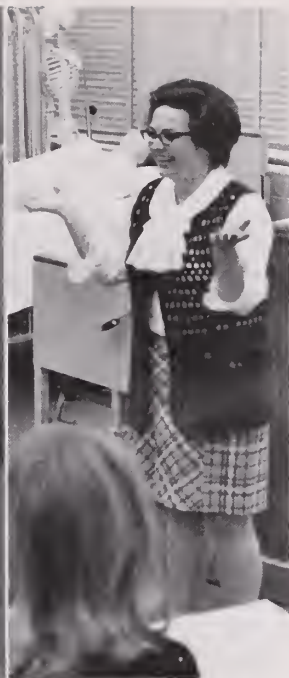

Home Economics is designed to teach future homemakers the general principles of family life.

Students Volunteer Time and Service

Student assistants devote their time and efforts to keep Cradock running smoothly. They aid the secretaries by answering the phone, filing, typing, and aiding visitors. They keep infirmiry records, prepare and serve lunches, and run countless errands each day. Student assistants volunteer their study periods every day and often work overtime to lighten the load of Cradock's busy staff.

S.C.A. Sponsors Korean Orphanage Drive

Under the sponsorship of Cradock's Student Council, many traditional activities were continued throughout the year.

In September the SCA held orientation for freshmen and new students. They also sponsored the annual Back-To-School Dance and Teacher's Tea. October found the Council occupied with the United Fund Drive, Homecoming, Citizenship Week, and mock elections.

The student body's cooperation with the SCA aided in making the Thanksgiving Food Drive and the Korean Orphanage Collection tremendous successes. December was devoted to sponsoring the Children's Christmas Party, the Christmas Door Contest, and the mail service.

Next on the agenda came the March of Dimes Drive, the Valentine mail service and the Miss Cradock Contest.

"Well we tried again," sigh SCA Officers resignedly. Dixie Stroupe — Secretary, Alice Hervey, — Treasurer, Richard Jackson — President, and Jimmie Smith — Vice-President.

Mrs. Johnson — Sponsor — is shocked to hear that Proposal 982 was passed by the administration.

SCA members think up vital strategem for getting ideas for the improvement of the school passed.

Senior Representatives, Robyn Gomer, Jobynia Gary, Bobby Larsen, Kathy Kramer, and Rachael Borum, take a break while helping with the props of the Miss Cradock Contest.

Junior Representatives, Susan McCormick, Ingrid Chapman, Dee Dee Kramer, Anita Edwards, and Betty Ann Borum, are ready to assume the dignity of seniors???

Sophomore Representatives, Cathie Ustick, Darwin Bales, Michele Maxon, and Susie Rudy, say, "Hurry up, it's cold out here!";

Freshmen Representatives, Alben Sellers, Glenn Smith, Julie Cantwell, Sharon Kramer, and Cynthia Haynes, attempt to pass through the Senior Door, but Senior Randy Bailey heads them off.

Inter-Club Council Revises Constitution

This year the Inter-Club Council was sponsored by Mr. Scott Weatherford. The Council consists of all club presidents. The president of the Council is appointed by the SCA. This year, the Council worked to revise the constitution in order to give the clubs a better understanding of what they can and cannot do.

Rachael Borum — Vice-President and Alice Hervey — President discuss important revisions of the SCA constitution with Inter-Club sponsor, Mr. Weatherford.

Inter-Club Council Members: Pat Ashe — Bible Club, Ingrid Chapman — F.B.L.A., Leslie Trent — Admiralettes, Regina Davis — Dramatics Club, Larry Bilko — Art Club, Debbie Tibbits — F.T.A.,

Tommy Camier — Science & Math Club, Jim Pardo — M.G.M., David Bradley — National Honor Society, Charlotte Carter — Kappa, relax after a hard year of unraveling the constitution.

Annual Staff

Works, Works, Works

The students who support the yearbook seldom realize the discouraging hours spent measuring captions and computing headline lengths. These people must familiarize themselves with the art of selling the book to not only the students, but to the neighboring establishments through the selling of ads. The annual staff turns a year's work and activities into a memory book for years to come. Their job is a demanding one, one that requires many late hours of typing, editing, and composing. Through the guidance of our sponsor, Mrs. Stroman, and co-editors Debbie Weaver and Betsy Remnet we feel that this task has been accomplished.

Annual Staff Photographers, John Prather and Shelton Mutter, are diligently at work in the dark room.

Log Staff Fights Pollution

This year was a most productive one for the LOG Staff. In an effort to economize, the staff members, in addition to their normal duties, took on jobs previously done by the printer. The annual Literary Arts Contest was the most rewarding project undertaken by the Staff.

"What is going on back there?" wonders Kay Hooker as Anna Thompson stares into space.

Log Staff Members: Terri Halstead, Jamie Wilson, Robbin Tyler, Mike Mays, and David Canada.

"This poem is unbelievable," gasps Miss Hampton as Editor Lila Printz chuckles.

Shipmate Staff Produces Great Senior Issue

Co-Editors Charlotte Carter, Mary Barnes, Debbie Tibbits, and Moscow Spencer relax with their sponsor, Miss Tugwell, after making a deadline.

The Shipmate Staff, with four editors and fourteen reporters, was active this year in informing students of school news and affairs. A hard working staff, they published an issue each six weeks, working toward printing a big senior issue at the end of the year. Under the new leadership of Miss Gwen Tugwell, this media tried to do its best to keep the students informed as well as amused.

Staff members discuss interesting stories to print in the next issue of the Shipmate.

"Klwrtizety Tupqmbic! what kind of a heading is that!!" exclaims Miss Tugwell as she checks copy of Kristle Saunder's typewriter.

N.H.S. Stresses Scholarship, Leadership, Character & Service

Scholarship, Leadership, Service, and Character are the four qualities which a National Honor Society member must exemplify. At the fall induction ceremony, nineteen students with these qualifications were inducted into the J.J. Booker, Jr. Chapter. This brought the roll of the Honor Society to thirty-three members. The Honorable Leo P. Blair, judge of Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court, spoke at the ceremony.

The roll was further increased to thirty-seven with the addition of four new members at the spring induction ceremony. Twenty members were seniors and seventeen were juniors.

Stanton, Ingrid Chapman, Susan McCormick, and Charisse Spencer.

F.B.L.A. Wins Plaques at Regional Meeting

F.B.L.A. sponsored many projects this year. They held car washes, candy sales, bake sales, and stuffed animal sales.

The members gave Halloween favors to the teachers, participated in the Thanksgiving Food Drive, formed a secretarial pool, made bulletin board displays, and attended the Regional Meeting and the State Convention in Richmond.

It was at the Regional Meeting that the F.B.L.A. members really distinguished themselves. Carol Whitaker and Debbie Brown brought back a first place plaque for their display, and Maryanne Larsen won first place with her essay.

F.B.L.A. Officers learn the correct technique of a coffee break. Marcella Taylor — Vice-President, Ingrid Chapman — President, Susan McCormick — Secretary, Maryanne Larsen — Historian, Carol Whitaker — Reporter, Miss Mishoe — Co-sponsor. Absent: Doris Jordan — Treasurer.

F.T.A. Attend State Convention

The members of the Future Teachers of America had an active year in sponsoring projects that dealt with the purpose of this organization. They attended the district convention, listened to various speakers on education and teaching, and provided assistant tutoring at Riddick-Weaver Elementary School.

To make favorable impressions on present teachers, the members served refreshments in the lounges, acted as hostesses for the Classroom Teachers Card Party, and made favors for the teachers for Valentine's Day.

The highlight of the year was their banquet held in May.

I.C.T. Recieves Superior Ratings

The Industrial Cooperative Training program is a plan for implementing the training resources of the school and the community. It is an arrangement between the industrial, technical, and professional business establishments in the community and the public high school, whereby the establishments furnish the technical and ethical subject matter related to the occupation, and the high school furnishes a teacher-coordinator who directs the training of the student through counseling, classroom instruction, and periodic visits on the job.

This year's V.I.C.A. Club has done many worthwhile projects, such as selling pins. They attended numerous rallies. At the District Festival this year, twelve students received superior ratings and later attended the State Convention. One student, Bunny Humphries, is a state officer and has attended many state functions. She also attended the Washington Youth Leadership Conference.

Mr. Prillaman, Coordinator of I.C.T., daydreams of plentiful jobs in Portsmouth.

D.E. Sponsors "Pioneer Day"

D.E. Officers: Susan Canady — President, Debbie Lille — Secretary, Alice De Armond — Chaplain, Mike Liverman — Vice-President, Eugene Richardson — Reporter.

The Cradock Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America has been very active for the year 1970-71. Their first important project was held in the summer with the promotion of "Pioneer Days" at Town & Country Shopping Center. They were given time on WTAR for the "Get Out & Vote Campaign." For the student body's benefit, D.E.C.A. sponsored a "Shoplifting Prevention Campaign".

Cradock played the host for the District Officer Session-Training and the District Fall Rally. Special guests at meeting included Fitzpatrick and Whitehurst's representative Mr. Lustic and Margaret Black, an alumnae of D.E., who talked of improvement and techniques of good grooming.

Michael Liverman ran for State President this year and also competed for the D.E. Student of the Year.

"Isn't that a pretty flower? It's my first one!" exclaims Mrs. Barnes to incredulous onlookers.

Kappa Members

Display a Spirit of Concern

If Kappa's numerous services could be summed up in three words, those words would be "concern for others." Led by President Charlotte Carter, this club sponsored a party at the Portsmouth Boys' Home, contributed to the United Fund, provided dog food for the Portsmouth Humane Society, sold balloons for the March of Dimes, aided the project of the Korean Orphan Home, and extended a helping hand in co-sponsoring the Literary Arts Contest.

Kappa gave forth with a lot of pep this year in the way of spirit posters and cheering together at the games.

This year's sweethearts are the best ever in the persons of Robbie Hughes, Bobby Wilburn, and Richard Jackson.

Kappa Officers keep in shape for service. Debbie Weaver — Secretary, Betsy Remnet — Chaplain, Dale White — Vice-President, Charlotte Carter — President, and Donna McClellan — Treasurer.

Admiralettes Go to the Beach

This year Admiralettes have really outdone themselves. The spirit they displayed at sports events and on projects contributed much toward interest in student participation in school activities. They put up spirit posters in the cafeteria for football and wrestling, and their members wore spirit tags. They also sold seasonal athletic passes. The club's homecoming float was named "Best Looking".

Some of their projects were co-sponsoring the Literary Arts Contest, participating in the Thanksgiving Food Drive, taking part in the bread sale for the Portsmouth March of Dimes drive, collecting for UNICEF, and holding bake sales and car washes.

M.G.M. Gets Off to a Great Start as a New Club

This year MGM. Cradock's Maroon and Gold Men, was newly formed. The sole purpose of MGM is to promote goodwill and friendship among the students.

Under the guidance of co-sponsors Mr. Dickens and Mr. Gardner, this club took part in the Thanksgiving Food Drive, loaded and delivered food baskets to the needy and sponsored a child for the Children's Christmas Party. Most guys take an active interest in girls, and members of MGM are no exception as they patronized the program for the Miss Cradock Contest. This year's sweethearts were Robyn Gomer and Leora Sellers.

GOOD LUCK!!!!, MGM, in your future as an interesting and service rendering organization.

MGM Officers and interested members show their appreciation to Mr. Gardner — co-sponsor. Jerry Seager, John Garner — Treasurer, Bobby Murphy — Secretary, Jim Pardo — President, Richard Jackson, Arnold Barrow, and Bruce Bunting — Vice-President.

Jim Pardo and Bruce Bunting led this new club to a great year.

Science and Math Club Joins Virginia Junior Academy of Science

The Science & Math Club may well be described as a special interest club. This year it joined the Virginia Junior Academy of Science and sponsored a trip to the Luray Caverns.

In addition to promoting interest in the sciences, the Science & Math Club also stressed involvement in other activities. Its members participated in the Thanksgiving Food Drive, in which they placed first, sponsored a child for the Children's Christmas Party, won the "Most Original" award for their Homecoming float, and gave a Faculty Tea.

"Are you sure that's how it works?" asks President Tommy Caminer to Vice-President Paula Varney as Miss Riddick—sponsor, Chris Bollen—Treasurer, Charles Hardey—Secretary, Miss Sheffield—sponsor, and Mr. Gardner—sponsor look on.

The Science & Math Club like to pose for pictures.

"We are now on the verge of a great discovery," whispers Miss Sheffield to interested onlookers.

Bible Club Sponsors Annual Bible Club Banquet

The Bible Club has accomplished many varied and helpful duties this year. Under the superb guidance of co-sponsors Mrs. Lucas and Mr. Ficenec, they sang and distributed gifts to homes for the aged, held a party at the Boy's Home, and sponsored a child at the Children's Christmas Party sponsored by the S.C.A.

They built a float for Homecoming which helped to depict the theme very well. In order to raise money for the annual Bible Club Banquet, they held bake sales at various places throughout the community.

"Why are we standing out here?" wonder Bible Club Officers and Sponsors.

Drama Club Plays Host to Many Speakers

The Dramatics Club of 1970-71 has had an interesting year with lectures from such persons as Mark Thomas of the Cavalier Dinner Theater; W.P. Covington of the Drama Department at the Tidewater Community College; and Doug Morgan, a professional stunt man from Hollywood, California. These lectures were open to the student body. In February, the club produced a suspenseful drama in three acts entitled "Rehearsal for Death" which was enjoyed by the students as well as the public.

Drama Club Officers and Sponsor reach for a star. Miss Butler — sponsor, Anderson Johnson — Treasurer, Regina Davis — President, Charisse Spencer — Secretary, Joyce Hunter — Vice-President, and Lynne Kelly — Chaplain.

Drama Club members are real artists in their field.

Debate Team Puts Two Speakers in State's Top Ten

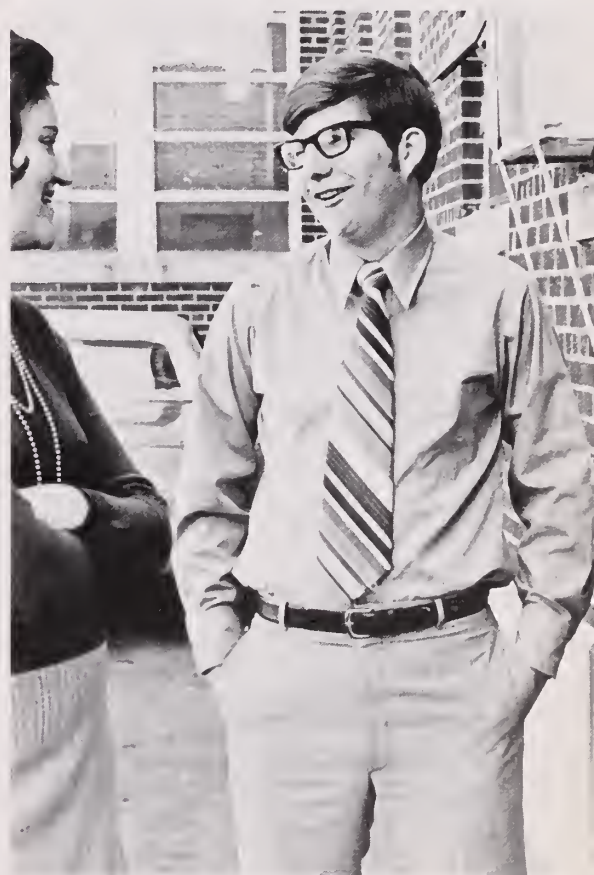

"How can you argue with a machine that keeps quarters and only gives ice!" exclaims Brenda Stevenson to her fellow novices, Karen Hunter, Marilyn Butts, and Willa Davis.

The 1971 Debate Team. Jim Pardo, David Bradley, Tommy Stenzel, Karen Hunter, Marilyn Butts, Brenda Stevenson, Willa Davis, and Miss Sheffield.

The Cradock High School Debating Team had a very successful year. They attended the Chesapeake Invitational, the Warwick Invitational, a debate at the University of Richmond in which they won speaker awards, and a debate at Norfolk State where the team went away with second place affirmative awards and third place negative awards. The team was led by sponsor Mrs. Sheffield and co-captains Tommy Stenzel and Richard Strickland.

Debate man Jim Pardo chuckles confidently as he, David Bradley and Miss Sheffield discuss the coming debate in Richmond.

Art Club Displays Talents in City-Wide Art Exhibit

The Art Club was really kept busy this year. Their float for Homecoming won the "Best Theme" award. As Christmas approached, the club decorated the office and the stage inspiring a yuletide spirit throughout the school.

They displayed an ecology exhibit and sponsored a citywide art exhibit.

The stage and props for the musical, "Mr. President," were also decorated by the Art Club members.

Darlene has such an artistic flair. Larry Bilko — President, Jamie Wilson — Secretary, Mrs. Staffon — Sponsor, Darlene Townsend — Treasurer, and Bill Lewin — Vice-President.

Cradock Band Takes Second in State

The Cradock High School Band competing at the Williamsburg Band Festival.

This year has been an active one for the Cradock High School Marching Admirals and the Concert Band. In addition to performing for the usual number of football games in the fall, the band has participated in four local parades, the District Band Festival, placed twelve members in the District Workshop Band, and eleven members in the District Regional Band. The band was also awarded second place in the annual Williamsburg Band Day. A Christmas and Spring Concert along with providing the musical accompaniment for the musical "Mr. President" wound up a most eventful year.

Orchestra Recieves Superior Rating

ORCHESTRA OFFICERS: Pamela Butler — Librarian, Daphne Waring — Treasurer, Angela Carver — President, Marilyn Gatling — Secretary, Zebedee Wooten — Assist. Sec., Mrs. Harding — Director.

The orchestra had a busy year of activities, which included a concert at Waters Jr. High, the Portsmouth Naval Hospital, the South Street U.S.O., and numerous appearances at the Golden Triangle Hotel.

The string orchestra received a superior rating at the District Band and Orchestra Festival. This was the first time the string orchestra had competed in a music festival.

The string orchestra went to Jersey City to conduct a concert and then went on to New York City to take in the sights. To raise funds for the trip, the orchestra presented a fashion show which featured members of Cradock's faculty and student body.

STRING ENSEMBLE: Phillip King, Pamela Butts, Zebedee Wooten, Angela Carver, Marilyn Gatling, Virginia Carter, and Daphane Waring.

Coaches Lead Admirals to Winning Season

The Cradock Admirals opened their season with a 31 to 8 victory over the Deep Creek Hornets. During the game a 56-yard touchdown pass was thrown by Johnny Slaughter, who was later injured.

The next week Cradock started fast against Great Bridge. In the first quarter, Mack Brown intercepted a pass which was later run in by Clyde Jacobs. Unfortunately we still lost 28 to 6.

The second defeat of the season came when the Norcom Greyhounds romped over us 44 to 6. Despite the overwhelming score, the Admirals running back David Monell scored a last-second touchdown.

The following week was to bring change to the luck encountered for the last two weeks. With a 15-15 tie, Wesley Smith made a winning interception for the 23 to 15 win over Western Branch.

In the Homecoming game, Cradock was defeated 26 to 8. In this game with Indian River, Mack Brown scored the only touchdown.

Bill Minnix kicks off for the Admirals.

Cradock lost its fourth game to the Maury Commodores despite an early touchdown by Wesley Smith, the final score being 22 to 6.

Cradock's next game brought a 14 to 7 win over Oscar Smith. Outstanding players were Wesley Smith and David Monell. This win was the first of three in a row. Next, Cradock met Crestwood at home. Johnny Slaughter, who had been out for most of the season, returned to lead the Admirals to a 27 to 0 shutout. Wesley Smith scored three of the four touchdowns with the fourth going to Clyde Jacobs. Also, Eppa Barkley scored three points on conversions.

In the ninth game of the season, the Admirals shut out Churchland 28 to 0. Johnny Slaughter threw two touchdown passes, Clyde Jacobs ran one in, and Eppa Barkley intercepted a pass which resulted in an eighty-yard touchdown.

In their final game, Cradock was defeated 26 to 6 by Wilson. This ended our season with a 5 and 5 record.

"Cornbread" Smith, Steven Jones, and Clyde Jacobs are in defensively for the Admirals.

David Monell and Mack Brown protect quarterback Johnny Slaughter.

Junior Varsity Today . . . Varsity Tomorrow

Steve Harmon breaks up an Oscar Smith running play.

Butch Evans and Mike Roseborough show how Admiral pursuit is made effective.

The Junior Varsity football team ended with a 7-3 record.

Led by coaches Richard Huneycutt and Butch Bisese, the J.V. squad succeeded in sportsmanship as well as having a winning season.

The J.V. team accomplished a fantastic record with the amazing throwing power of quarterback Steve Harmon and the blinding speed of their running backs Fred Jacobs, Mike Rosebrough, and Keith Brinson.

On defense the J.V. squad was unbeatable. Their great pass rush prevented the opposing teams from accomplishing their game plans.

"Sugar Bear" Barkley was a great threat on defense as he and Elwin Evans broke up many plays with their explosive attack.

Admirals line up against Oscar Smith in a spread formation.

Bruce Stone foils an attempted pass play.

Coach Bisese walks across the field after a successful win.

Steve Harmon sprints down the field leaving defenders behind.

Terry Barkley (Sugar Bear), blocks an attempted punt.

Admirals Place Second in District

The 70-71 season was one of the most successful seasons in Cradock basketball history. The final record of 14-6 and a close second place finish in the Southeastern District Tournament is evidence of their success. Teams throughout the area became aware of and worried about the Cradock fast break which was very effective.

Wesley Smith was chosen as Portsmouth's Outstanding Player, but it was the team effort that was responsible for their great success. Besides Wesley, Eddie Smith, Randy Bailey, Eppa Barkley, Earl Jordan, Myron Moore, Wayne Cherry, Matthew Hill and Bob Larsen were main Admiral Stars.

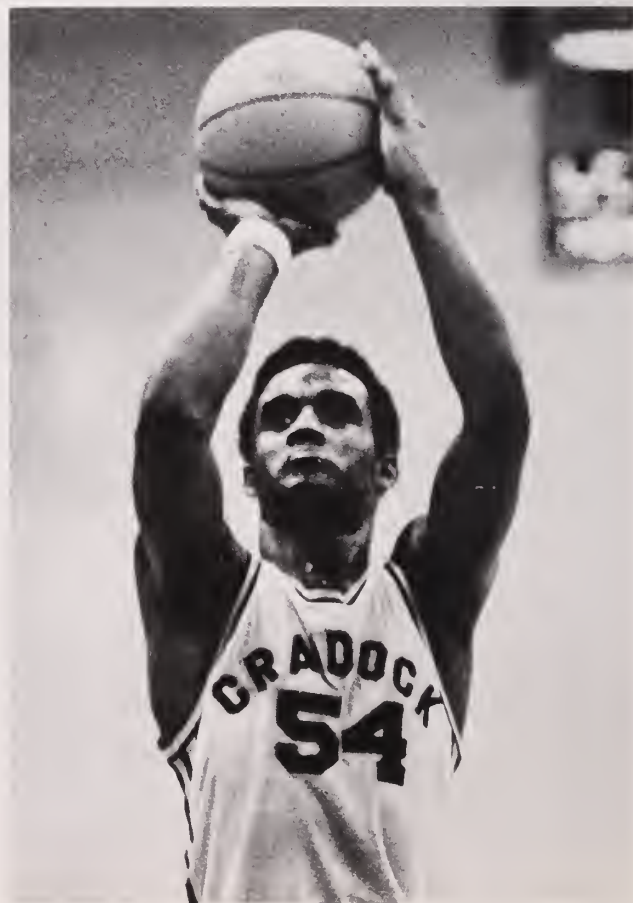

Coach Carson's 70-71 dream was just five points away in the final tournament game, but he was justly proud of the drive and determination displayed by the team members. The Cradock fans also were an important factor as their spirit and rhythm provided great encouragement to the Fighting Admirals.

J.V. Coach Butch Bisese looks on as Coach Carson instructs the team during a time out.

The quickness of Eppa Barkley results in a steal and two points for Cradock.

Cornbread Smith prepares to add another point to the many he has already scored.

The 1970-71 members are: First row — Robert Larsen, Bud Ballard, Mike Eaton, Wesley "Cornbread" Smith, Myron Moore, Matthew Hill, Eddie Smith, Randy Bailey, Thomas Bullock, Arnold Smith,

Earl Jordan, Dennis Askew, Wayne Cherry and Eppa Barkley. Back row — J.V. Coach Butch Bisese, Head Coach Ray Carson and Asst. Coach Dana Dickens.

Although outnumbered, Eddie Smith shoots over four Great Bridge defenders. It was not uncommon for this Cradock star to do the impossible.

Teamwork Key to Admirals' Success

Earl Jordan soars over the crowd as Randy Bailey and Eddie Smith await a possible rebound.

A jump ball and as usual Eddie Smith outreaches the opponent to start the Cradock fast break in action.

The Cradock players seem to disagree with the referee's call during one of the three victories over Wilson.

Wayne Cherry outraces his opponent and lays in an easy two points against Oscar Smith.

JV Shows Promise for the Future

Dwight Mitchell prepares to move in and rebound a stray foul shot. He was the top scorer on the team.

Charles Holloman and Bennett Martin move upcourt against Churchland. These two young men are important to the J.V.'s.

Playmaker Mike Taylor shows that a small man can play basketball as he takes the ball downcourt.

Although the J.V. basketball team was not acquainted with winning ways there were several bright spots to the J.V. season. One was Coach Bisese's leadership on and off the court which was outstanding considering this was his first season as a coach.

Mike Taylor and Dwight Mitchell were the two most valuable players to the team. Both young men show great potential in their upcoming careers. Glenn Moore, Bennett Martin, Charles Holloman and Tony Smith also demonstrated excellent scoring and rebounding abilities and should help to provide a strong varsity team next year.

The J.V. record does not begin to show the effort and determination put forth by the players. There were many close games that saw the Admirals fall short by just a few points. But, no matter what the breaks of the game, the Admirals always acted in a sportsmanlike manner that brought much credit to themselves as well as our school.

Glenn Moore easily outjumps his opponent. His exceptional jumping ability resulted in many Cradock rebounds.

Team Says, “Wait Till Next Year!”

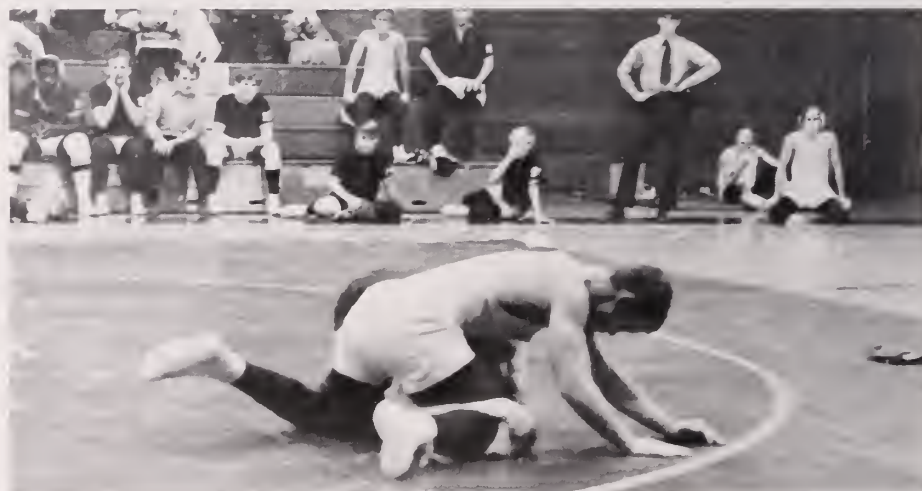

The Admiral Matmen launched their 1971 season with only four returning veterans. Twelve strong and backed by an ironclad coach, the Cradock wrestlers faced each match with a challenging spirit.

Unlike few other sports, wrestling emphasizes individual achievement as opposed to team accomplishment. Self-discipline is the most important characteristic required of a wrestler. With concentration and a sound body the wrestler strives to gain control of his opponent.

This year Mike Draughn, Tommy Pallock, and Melvin Knight placed in the South-Eastern District Tournament. Underclassmen dominate the team, so as Coach Huneycutt often says, “Wait till next year.”

Team captains Tommy Pollock and David Monell welcome the Oscar Smith team.

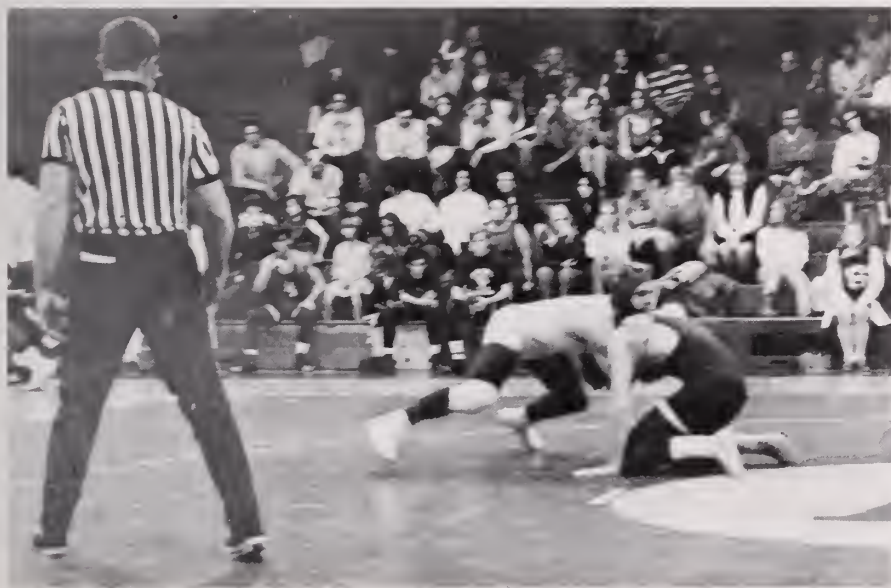

Rodney Nipper moves for a pin.

Fred Gustafson locks-up with his opponent.

Fred Gustafson moves for position on an Oscar Smith wrestler.

Cradock's heavyweight, Lawrence Chambers, does his thing.

Wait till next year!

With Wings on Their Feet

Under the watchful eyes of coaches Precythe and Singletary, the cross-country team retained a perfect record and their district title. The main reason for the team's success has been their will to win and their determination to push themselves toward their goal . . . VICTORY.

Indoor Track Carries On

Larence Chambers heaves the shot.

Although the indoor track at Fredrick College was done away with this year, the running Admirals continued their domination of the track. Running in the halls of schools, and outside in the cold, the Admirals retained their track crown. This year the indoor track team was under the leadership of coaches Singletary and Precythe.

Ronnie Joynter flies to the tape.

Although the outdoor track team lost their district title, they did not lose within themselves. Through their hard work and their desire to push themselves toward better things, the track team retained the title of being the number one team in sportsmanship. However, the team enjoyed a 3-3 record under their new coach Mr. Waff.

With the steady eye of coach Precythe, members of the tennis team advanced to the finals of the district match held at the Wilson courts. Although the team will be losing it's top players, Eppa Barkley, Jim Pardo, William Cowan, Clarence Johnson and Arnold Barrow, the hope of next years team will depend on those returning.

This year the tennis team came in second in the district and ended up with a 9-2 record.

Cradock Cheerleaders

Junior Varsity Cheerleaders have an exciting time during their first two years of cheering. They led the J.V. fans in many rousing cheers during the fall. In the winter they could be found leading many spectators in cheering for our great J.V. basketball team. They did many extra activities during the year such as helping the varsity cheerleaders lead the pep rallies and selling programs on those cold Friday nights. In the spring of 1971 those girls could be seen trying out for the honor of being a varsity cheerleader.

The J.V. Cheerleaders are Monica Barks, Nancy Faust, Cathi Ustick, Marie Spears, co-captains Michelle Maxon, and Susie Bradley, Kathy Lee, Debra Liljigren, Brenda Stevenson, and Cassandra Garner.

Add Life to Sports

The Varsity Cheerleaders are Rachel Borum, Shirley Root, co-captains Pam Bryant and Cathy Kramer, Dee Dee Kramer, Leora Sellers, Terri Halstead, Admiral Donald Gwaltney, and Dixie Stroup.

In the spring of 1970 some 50 girls were competing for the honor of being Varsity Cheerleaders. Those ten lucky girls could be found practicing during the long hot summer months. Two weeks in July the girls went to a National Cheerleaders Association Summer Cheerleaders School. There they received 5 awards: 3 Excellent, 1 Outstanding, and 1 Honorable Mention. In the fall they led the student body in pep rallies and cheered our football team toward victory. In the winter they cheered our basketball team forward. Then in the spring of 1971 these girls were teaching some 50 hopeful girls the skills and techniques they had acquired during the year.

Baseball Team Wins Regional Title

Having already won the District and Regional trophies, the baseball team traveled to Colonial Heights for the State Semi-final game with George Wythe. Here, Cradock's hopes for a State Title were shot down when George Wythe scored the winning run in the 9th inning on a close play at home, breaking the 1-1 tie. Cradock scored first in the 6th inning and held the lead momentarily on pitcher, Randy Bailey's homerun.

Naturally Admiral fans were disheartened at the loss, but soon realized that never before in history had any team at Cradock come so close to a State championship.

Our congratulations to Mr. Bell and the team on a fine season!

The Junior Varsity Baseball Team had a very successful year finishing up with a 5-3 record. Throughout the season at least 7 of the starting nine players were freshman. All of the J.V. players showed a great deal of promise for their varsity careers.

Freshman Gerald Harmon was the leading hitter and was outstanding at third base and pitcher. Wayne McClellan played well at both the pitching and outfield positions. Other outstanding players were Darwin Bales, Jerry Chinn, Donald Cox, Butch Evans, Richard Harmon, Kelly Miller, Jerry Phillips, Rusty Pope, and Vonney Shultz.

Robyn Gomer Crowned Homecoming Queen

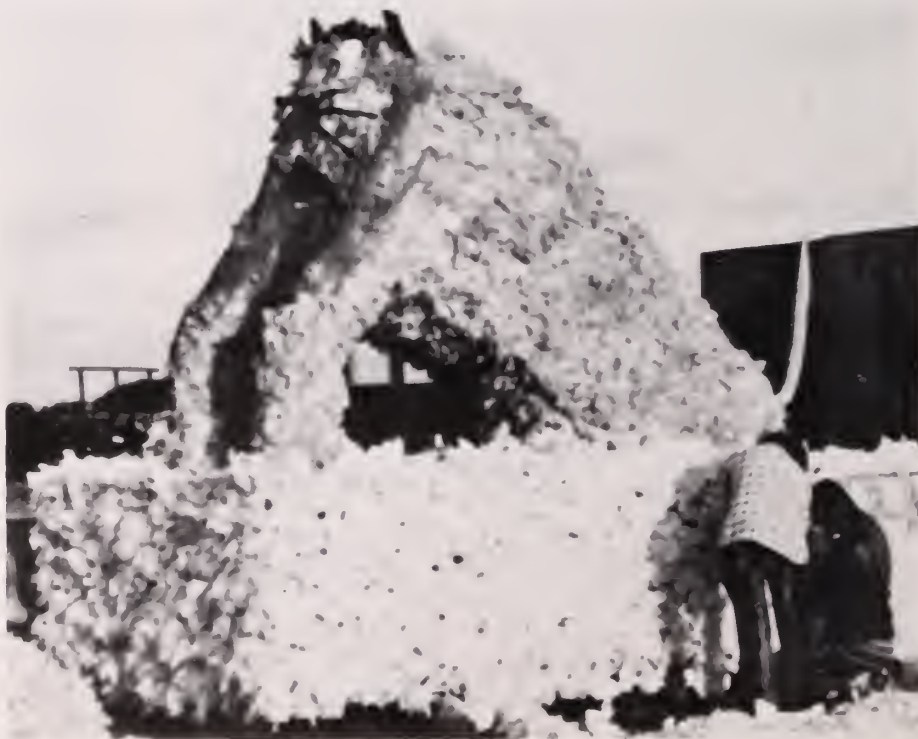

Leslie Trent, chairman, and Alice Hervey, assistant chairman, discuss plans with members of the 1970 Homecoming Committee.

The long weeks of float building . . . the headaches of the committee chairmen . . . the sighs of the alumni . . . the thrill of the game . . . the tears of the Seniors . . . the anticipation of the team . . . the excitement of the coronation . . . and then, a memory is born.

Homecoming is unlike any other day of our school year. It is tenderly special because it is a day when we are all one. On Homecoming all social and racial barriers are destroyed. Together we welcome our past graduates home to celebrate their reunion.

This year "Under the Big Top" provided a lively atmosphere in which we coordinated our hearts and hands to produce a fantastic Homecoming 1970.

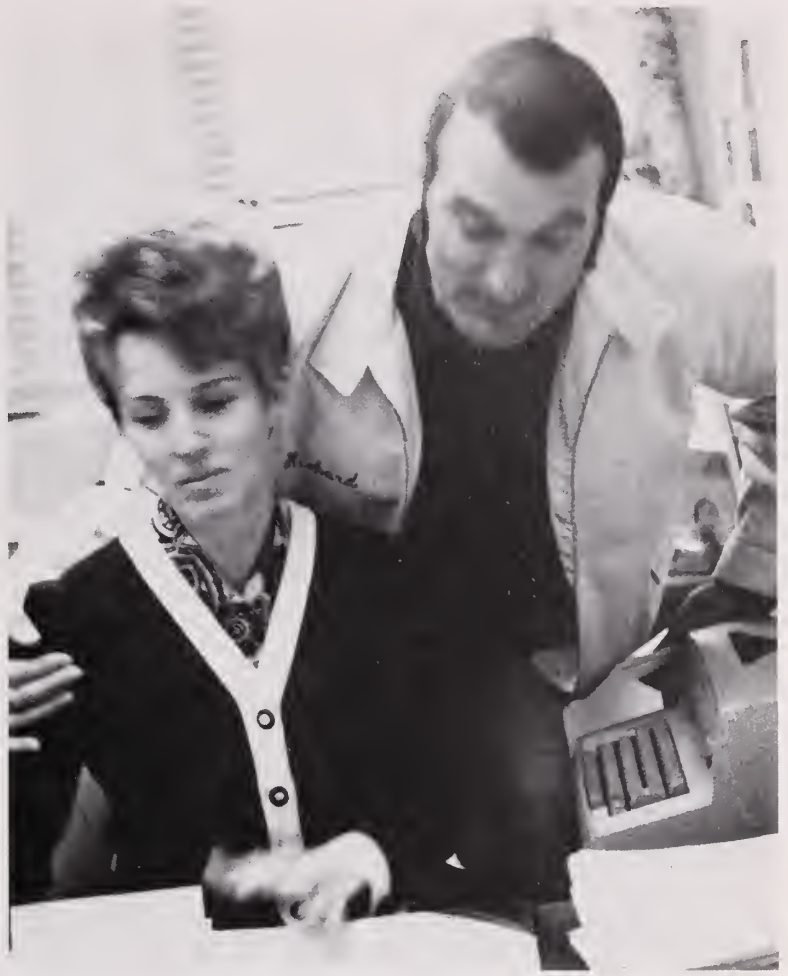

For the underclassmen, there will be others. But for the Seniors, October 16, 1970 was the last of those special Homecoming days.

Leslie Trent Travels to South Dakota for the 1970 Bellamy Award

Each year the National Bellamy Award honors Francis Bellamy, author of the Pledge of Allegiance by recognizing one outstanding high school in the nation. The Bellamy Award includes a week of banquets, classes, assemblies, tours, receptions, and a lot of fun. The most important part of the Bellamy Award though, is that it gives young people a chance to speak out. It is a reassurance that in a nation of present insecurity there is a generation of youth striving for a better America, a better world, a better way of life.

America's youth is taking heed to a call of duty. The goal of young people today is to produce an American society of enforced justice, increased opportunity, and great national pride.

As leaders of tomorrow we all share this obligation to preserve and protect freedom. And, as Janis Joplin put it, "It ain't nothin' if it ain't free."

Christmas comes but once a year and when it comes Admirals go wild.

The Admirals' good cheer was spread universally this year. The S.C.A. sponsored a drive to play Santa Claus to a home for needy orphans in Korea. The beaming grins of happy children filled the cafeteria with Yuletide spirit at the annual Children's Christmas Party. Decorated doors helped the spirit float all over the school. Students and teachers enjoyed the convenience of the Christmas Mail Service while at the same time aiding the TB fund. To top off the holiday atmosphere, the Music Department presented an inspiring concert of Christmas music.

The school seemed to ring with the Christmas spirit and the Admirals took great pride in helping others have a happy Christmas.

Friday, December 8, was wild with excitement. Smiles were unquenchable and laughter unending. But three o'clock brought a building quiet with sleepy halls.

The Admirals had gone home for Christmas.

And a Partridge

American

Lila Ward, chosen Miss Congeniality by the contestants, displays her formal wear.

First runner-up, Dee-Dee Kramer, offers a delightful smile to the audience.

On March 11, 1971 backstage of the Cradock High School auditorium was a complete chaos. Pictures were flashed, tears wiped, make-up and hair were done over and over again, and the air sang with nervous chuckles, sighs, and whimpers. A major production was in the making.

At 8:00 the audience hushed, the lights dimmed, and emcee Richard Jackson introduced twenty beaming girls, one within an hour would be Miss Cradock.

The contestants selected Lila Ward as Miss Congeniality and the judges picked Barbara Curtis to be our American Woman, Miss Cradock 1971.

With tear-filled eyes and a winning smile, Barbara began her reign as Miss Cradock.

"American Woman", sponsored by the Student Council and directed by Miss Becky Quattlebaum proved to be an evening of enchantment.

Backstage is a busy place and Student Director, Becky Quattlebaum performs as "Dear Abby" for Sharon Miller, Dee-Dee Kramer, and Terri Halstead.

"Rehearsal for Death" Shocks Audience

Say ahh!

Francis Spiaggi coaxes Beverly Gatling and "Dodo" Thamm to stick 'em up!

Cast members stand by amazed at Tommy Caminer's condition.

Under the direction of Miss Linda Butler members of the Student Body presented Samuel French's "Rehearsal for Death" on February 4 and 5. The play was a combination of suspense and comedy quite different from others previously performed at Cradock. Action took place from all points of the auditorium and the audience never knew what to expect.

"Rehearsal for Death" was one more way in which the Cradock students displayed their talents.

"Mr. President" comes to Cradock

First family leads chorus in the finale.

Belly dancers show their stuff.

Seniors dominated the leading roles in Irving Berlin's "Mr. President" presented on March 26 and 27 by the Fine Arts Department. By combining the talents of chorus, band, and orchestra students the auditorium came alive with excitement. The Art Department produced fantastic sets.

The title role was portrayed by Arnold Barrow, a Senior veteran of the stage. Paula Varney played his wife and Sharon Philpott and Johnny Garner, their children.

May musicals become a Cradock tradition.

Students seem awed at the decorations. Taking part in the fun are Donna Sawyer, Rusty Pope, Roxie Marshall, Danny Moore, and Cheryl Jordan.

On the evening of April 17, the only thing that the underclassmen had to do was to click the heels of their ruby slippers and suddenly they were off "To the Land of Oz". Castles, rainbows, and flowers decked the walls as happy couples danced to the beat of the "Black River Circus." At the door gifts of flowers and poppy incense were given to each couple. Refreshments lightened the evening.

Satisfied and relieved smiles could be seen on the faces of weary prom committee members especially chairman, Norma Lowman and co-chairman, Julie Cantwell. Sponsors, Mrs. Stoman and Mrs. Stanback, also expressed sighs of relief as they celebrated.

It was truly an enchanted evening — not to be forgotten by anyone.

Robin Brown and Honey Barnum take a break from grooving.

Class of 71 Presents "The Chalk Garden"

Madrigal and Olivia talk of future plans during dress rehearsal as Alice Hervey and Fred Gustafson look on.

The Judge, David Bradley, and Mrs. St. Maughm, Susan Balsor, discuss their youth.

Susan Balsor concentrates during her last performance.

"The Chalk Garden" was presented by the Class of 71 on May 6 and 7 under the direction of Miss Linda Butler.

The play involved the lives of a derranged teenager, and artificial grandmother, and exconvict governess, a nervous manservant, and a sensitive mother.

Ann Whitaker and Jeff Murray took the responsibility of being student directors.

The stage came alive with not only the melancholy and mysterious mood of the play but also the sentimentality of the cast members.

After a lively cast party the cast, including many veterans of such productions, left the stage for the last time.

The emotions of Madrigal and Laurel can be seen on their faces during this tender moment.

Ambitious Juniors Present "Age of Aquarius"

The First Lady of the Junior Class and "Saint" of the prom, Robbin Tyler pulls a few strings.

What do tee-shirts, doughnuts, soapy cars, and "talented" faculty members have in common? In our case they all mean PROM. After many strenuous weeks of raising money, preparations for the prom finally came to life.

Under the patient guidance of Mr. Shackelford and Miss Butler, the Junior class combined their talents to produce a unique prom.

On Friday evening, April 30, the "Age of Aquarius" dawned. For the first time in prom history, two bands performed. The astrological theme was carried out with starry sky and mystical horoscope symbols.

Although the members of the small prom committee beamed with smiles of pride and relief, Robbin Tyler, the exhausted chairman could be seen quietly weeping sentimental tears.

The Seniors were deeply honored by the fantastic dance and the Juniors were just plain happy.

The looks on Pat's and Mary Ann's faces seem to say, "No way, Bobby!"

Bobby Murphy, Mary Ann Larsen, and Johnny Garner may not have decked the halls but they sure decked the gym.

Billy Branham takes a break to fill 'er up.

Refreshments were welcomed by Leora Sellers and Bobby Larsen.

Randy Bailey displays one of his many talents.

Charlie Maderia and Terri Halstead make a wish before diving in.

You Can Make It If You Try

In this world you have to apply yourself to get what you want . . .

You can make it if you try.
You can make it if you try.
Push a little harder, dig a little deeper,
Don't let the traffic get you down.

You can make it if you try.
You can make it if you try.
Time away is creeping,
Especially if you're sleeping,
Wake up and go for what you want.

You can make it if you try.
You can make it if you try.
Do what you must do.
Everything coming to you,
You got to move if ya wanna be ahead.
All TOGETHER now.

— Sly and the Family Stone

Take what's coming to you . . .

You have to protect what is rightfully yours . . .

And often go along with the crowd.

Sometimes you have to do a lot of waiting . . .

Often you have to perform difficult tasks . . .

You have to open new doors for yourself . . .

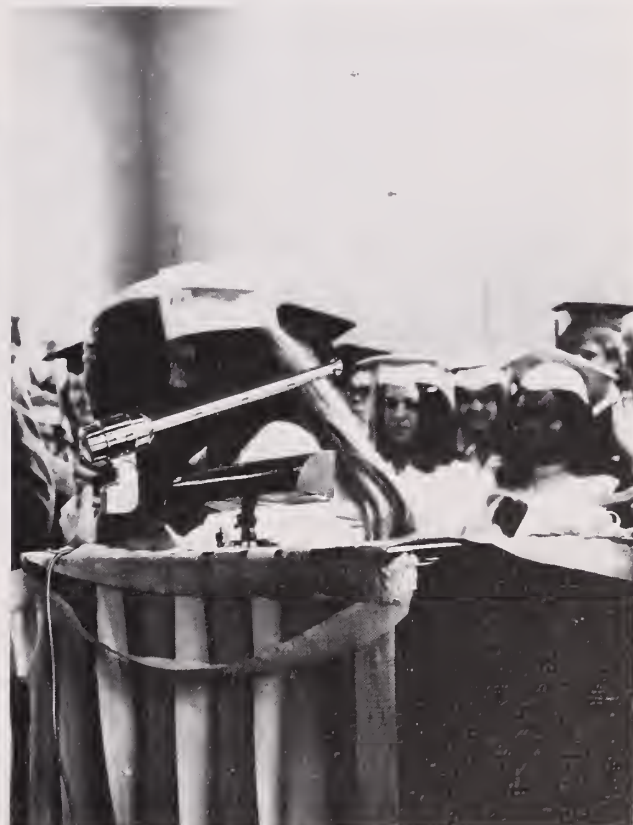

Learn to work together . . .

And make someone smile.

Graduation

Senior Assembly Causes Mixed Emotions

The last assembly for the Class of 1971 was one of mixed emotions for many seniors. Underclassmen stood as the seniors entered the gym for the last time. Comical skits were performed as David Bradley read the Class History. Also, the Last Will and Testament prompted many laughs from the audience. Many deserving seniors were presented with scholarships and other awards. Marilyn Gatling presented the senior class gift — new flags for the school. Mrs. Hawkins accepted the yearbook dedication as the student body responded with a standing ovation. Tears filled some eyes when the class song and poem were presented for the student body. As the seniors filed out of the gym some cried, some smiled, other were indifferent to the situation. Unlike previous years, few seniors left the school grounds after the assembly, but instead remained for a party and picnic held in their honor. This proved to be a successful substitute on the part of the administration as most seniors enjoyed themselves.

Senior Class President, Marilyn Gatling, presents Mr. Gray with the Senior Class Gift — new flags for the school.

Evidently everyone doesn't appreciate Mrs. Wimbush's Singing.

"Lawrence Wulzer" conducts his class with the same zeal and vitality as Papa himself.

"Don't Rain on Our Parade"

Seniors mingle after consuming a delicious meal.

"Don't Rain on Our Parade" was held in the school cafeteria and proved to be a great success. The hard work of the banquet committee was reflected in the beautiful decorations that filled the room. Everyone enjoyed the delicious food and the first readings of the Class History by David Bradley and the Last Will and Testament by Jim Pardo. Lila Printz read the class poem and the seniors were presented with their class song by Paula Varney, Arnold Barrow, and Sharon Philpott. One of the highlights of the evening was the incident that occurred when one young lady's hair was ignited by one of the candles into a brilliant burst of flame. However, the only resulting damage was a slight alteration to her hairdo.

Class Historian, David Bradley reads the history of the mighty Class of '71.

The face of Debbie Weaver reflects the feelings of many seniors — sorrow and joy.

Class Lawyer, Jim Pardo, reads the Last Will and Testament much to the amusement of the seniors.

An Ending: A Beginning

On Monday night, June 14, the Senior Class marched proudly into the stadium where they ended their high school years and began a new way of life. As speeches were made and awards given, many seniors, no doubt, wondered what lie ahead. The twenty-one honor graduates sat proudly on the first row as they anxiously awaited their diplomas. As Mr. Byrd read the names, Mr. Gray presented the seniors with their diplomas, after which Mr. Bailey flipped their tassels signifying the new graduates as alumni. The emotions of most seniors were difficult to describe, but in the minds of the underclassmen, the mighty Class of '71 will always be remembered.

Farewell

Class of 71

As the band played the recessional many seniors were already thinking of the night that lay ahead. There would be the beach, the parties, etc. This was the night for which they had worked twelve long years. The ceremonies were over and the remainder of the night was theirs. The new alumni of Cradock High School took advantage of the situation and although no one knows the number of parties held that night it is certain everyone had fun. All we can say is best of luck alumni and have fun.

Epilogue

To strive, to seek, to find;
Strength in what remains behind.
